Craft Dallas Family Dinner

Because of the overwhelming successful weeks of KRLD restaurant week, Craft Dallas has decided to do more. During the week of February 10th-14th, Craft will be offering "family meal", a three-course meal for $45 per person. $5 of each diners' check will be donated to The Roy Williams Safety Net Foundation. Craft is a contemporary American restaurant owned by world-renowned celebrity chef Tom Colicchio. Craft is located at 2440 Victory Park Lane, in the W Hotel. For more information, please visit www.craftrestaurant.com.

Congratulations to Mrs. Lisa Tanski-Cook of Dallas, TX, for winning Roy's front row tickets! Thank you to everyone that participated.

Recently, The Roy Williams Safety Net Foundation volunteered with The United States Marine Corps and Toys for Tots in the collection of new, unwrapped toys. Donated toys were then distributed as Christmas gifts to children in the Dallas/Ft. Worth area. The day was a huge success, raising nearly $33,000 and collecting approximately 3,000 toys.

Also assisting in the donation of gifts to families in need this holiday season, The Roy Williams Safety Net Foundation distributed toys to 48 families, including 118 kids. Thanks to Toys for Tots for making this possible.

Also, many thanks to the Hashem family for their donation of new, unwrapped toys also given out that day!

'Tis The Season!

The Roy Williams Safety Net Foundation shared a formal dinner at the historic Adolphus Hotel in downtown Dallas on Friday, December 12th with foundation families and friends.

Highlights of the evening included the announcement of our All Pro Volunteer Award to Ms. Allison Henson and Ms. Kimberly Rutland, as well as special treats for moms and kids alike.

Special thanks for the generous donations from Leslie Matney of Gregory's, TIGI, That's Haute and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stanton who helped to make the evening a memorable experience.
